

Thursday 29 September 2011

Indigo Rocks to its own beat

Residents of Indigo Shire do not have to travel to see live bands perform at a music festival; they are performing right at their doorstep. The Indigo Rocks music festival will be held at the Yackandandah Sports Park on Saturday 15 October from 1pm until 11pm, and some of the best acts coming out of Indigo Shire will perform.

Indigo Shire Council Youth Development Officer Annette Walton said that a number of Battle of the Bands have been held around the Shire, and have uncovered some fresh talent.

"We had some amazing talent playing at our Battle of the Bands, and it is great to now give them the opportunity to play at Indigo Rocks, and share their talent with the whole Shire," Ms Walton said.

The festival will have live bands, DJs, a dance zone, an acoustic chill zone, market stalls and much more. Calling all Cars, Stonefield, Red Ink, Guthrie, Beas Window, Forbidden Burning, Pete Jones, Jovian, the Suits, James Eggleston, Jess Gay, Bella Johnston, Higher Authority, Mad Science, Streetlight Curfew and Risk of Electric Shock will be performing throughout the day.

"People of all ages are encouraged to come along to the free event for a great day out," Ms Walton said.

Entry is free, and it is a drug and alcohol free for all ages. For more information go to the Indigo Rocks facebook page and 'Like' it for updates, or call Indigo Shire Council Youth Development Officer Annette Walton on 0418 163 699, 1300 365 003 or 02 6028 1100.

ENDS