

Friday 11 March 2011

Indigo Youth Awards

Do you know a young person who achieves great things? Someone you are really proud of?

To recognise and celebrate the amazing young people who live, work and engage in the Indigo Shire, a shire-wide youth awards ceremony will be held on the 7th April in Rutherglen during National Youth Week.

The Indigo Shire invites all members of the community to nominate young people between the ages of 11 and 25 who you believe should be recognised for their achievements.

Council's Youth Development Officer Annette Walton said achievements could be in the sporting arena, the arts, academia, volunteering, mentoring, leadership or caring for a grandparent, or challenging themselves to learn a new skill.

"There are so many young people in the community who do fantastic things on a daily basis, that we would like to acknowledge," Ms Walton said.

"There are young people who help in the family, care for friends, work in family businesses, as well as those who achieve at school and in the sporting arena. This is a great opportunity for us to recognise these young people in our community. They are the leaders of tomorrow and we want to acknowledge them."

Nomination forms are on Council's website at www.indigoshire.vic.gov.au.

Nominations for the awards, which have been funded by the Victorian Government, close on 31 March.

Caption: Jack Mostyn, Justin Reed, Aidan Warne, Lili Donaldson, Daniel Greene, Braydon Neilson, James Mostyn at the recent Alpindigo Music Program workshop.

END

More information:

Annette Walton
Youth Development Officer
02 6028 1133
0418 163 699