Re-inVent Volunteer Expo

Eleven community groups including kindergartens, historical societies, sporting clubs, event committees, arts groups, community safety groups, hall committees, service clubs, neighbourhood houses and development associations came together to share their vast knowledge at the second annual Re-inVent Expo. Groups participated in workshops demonstrating how to recruit and retain volunteers, harness the power of social media, attract younger members, plan for the future and write grant applications. The diverse number of community groups emerged reinvigorated from the opportunity to find out
