Evergreen Faces competition

The Evergreen Faces competition is a state-wide photography contest and will be run in Indigo Shire as part of Council's Senior's Week festivities. Residents are encouraged to challenge the negative stereotypes often associated with ageing by entering the annual competition. This year, Evergreen Faces theme Getting out and about will promote people over 60 being active and enjoying life.

Entrants must submit an original photo taken in the last three years, of at least one person aged over 60 enjoying life. Competition entry forms are available at indigo Shire Customer Service Centres at Beechworth, Yackandandah and Rutherglen, or online at: www.evergreenfaces.com.au

Entry is free and open to all ages and abilities. Entries close on August 31.

Finalists photos will be displayed during Victorian Senior's Festival at the Rutherglen Library from 2 October to 9 October 2011, when you can vote for the People's Choice Award throughout Victoria. The winning photographer will receive a trip for two to New Zealand courtesy of Odyssey Travel, and there's an additional prize of $500 for a lucky voter.
